

Power Brands Rising stars

GURU RANDHAWA

THE ROCKING PUNJABI TADKA- A COMPLETE MUSICAL PACKAGE!

The flourishing Punjabi music industry, which is famous for its catchy numbers, has a long list of contributors. A host of young, energetic writers, composers and singers have made Punjabi music industry what it is today. Adding to the list is the full package in himself, singer Guru Randhawa. The 24-year-old dashing Guru began singing at the age of seven and has been performing at various musical venues in his hometown and across India. After completing High School, Guru Randhawa moved to Delhi to complete his Graduate Programme in Planning and Entrepreneurship from The Indian Institute of Planning & Management. The ever burning passion in him – the urge to make his mark in the music industry led him get trained as a professional singer and kept him self-motivated and doggedly steadfast to reach his destined goal.

He started receiving recognition as a solo performer in Punjab and all over India after working with famous Bollywood and hip-hop artist Kailash Kher and Bohemia. One of the more recognized voices not just in Punjabi music industry, now also in Hindi film industry, Randhawa is now competing with some of the leading singers of Bollywood. Having displayed a keen interest, passion and ear for music as a young boy; Guru Randhawa has proven his versatility since the start with hit tracks like High Rated Gabru, Suit, Yaar Mod Do, Patola and Fashion etc.

Two tracks of Guru Randhawa recently have caught the fancy of filmmakers, who've included them in their films. Suit made it to music aficionados' play lists soon after Irrfan Khan starrer 'Hindi Medium' released, Randhawa's 2016 number, Tu Meri Rani has been recreated for Vidya Balan-starrer Tumhari Sulu, to be released on November 17th 2017. Soon after the release of the song Ban Ja Tu Meri Rani, it has received a very positive response to which the makers of the film has recently released its latest remix version of the song...

Guru Randhawa has been performing on stage since young age and has made appearances on runaway hit shows such as the Indian Premier League. Throughout his nascent career this far, he has had the opportunity to work alongside the likes of Irrfan Khan, Vidya Balan and Arjun Kapoor. An exceptional body of work for someone this young!

Whether it is Bollywood or Independent music, Singer Guru Randhawa has proven his mettle in both spaces. Guru is currently working on a Punjabi movie and will soon make his debut as a lead actor. Looks like 2018 will have a stunning start with his latest single to uplift your mood and get grooving.